Dear parents and carers,

This half term seems to be going very quickly, full of wonderful learning experiences for all classes.

We are thrilled to share some exciting news from Kestrel Class! A group of our talented pupils have collaborated on a stunning piece of artwork that has been selected to feature in the Christian Aid Creative for Climate Justice Exhibition, held in Westminster.

This incredible achievement highlights not only the artistic talents of our children but also their deep understanding and commitment to the issues of climate justice. Rooted in our school's Christian ethos, the project encouraged the children to reflect on how we can all work together to protect the Earth for future generations.

The artwork itself is a powerful and thought-provoking piece. Through their collaboration, the children have used vibrant colours, textures, and symbols to represent the importance of caring for our planet.

To have their work displayed in Westminster, at the heart of national decision-making, is a remarkable opportunity for the children to amplify their voices on such an important issue. It serves as a reminder of the impact we can have when we come together in faith and action.

This Tuesday, Badger Class had the pleasure of welcoming parents and carers to a special event that took everyone on a nostalgic journey into the past. As part of their history project learning about "Toys Through Time."

The event was a wonderful opportunity for our pupils to connect with their families and community, exploring how the toys we cherish reflect the times we live in. It was also a reminder of the joy and value of simple, imaginative play, something that transcends generations.

We'd like to thank everyone who joined us and shared their memories—it truly made the day special for the children. Badger Class has learned so much, and their curiosity about history has been enriched by this shared experience.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your continued support of your child and the school. Have a wonderful weekend.

Kind regards
